

Dates For Your Diary!

Parents' Information Evening Monday 12th November

On Monday 12th November 6 pm, Julie Palmer will be coming to speak about the current expectations in for the English curriculum. Julie has worked with the DFE as an advisor around certain areas of the National Curriculum. There will also be an opportunity to look at examples of work that show where pupils need to reach at the end of their current year.

Remembrance Poppies

On Wednesday 7th November, pupil will be taking part in an afternoon of activities around the theme of Remembrance. We would like to invite parents and friends to come and paint their own poppy during the session. You will need to bring an empty plastic bottle with you!

Poppies will be on sale in the playground from tomorrow.

Friday 9th November – Remembrance Worship
2.30 pm in St. Laurence Church

Gloucester Lantern Procession

Sunday 18th November 4 pm

Swift and Goldfinch Class are working hard with artist Anita Andrews to create lantern sculptures on the theme of The Snow Queen to carry at the Lantern Procession. This starts at 4 pm and we would like as many pupils as possible to come along and join in.

Children in Need Friday 16th November

Swift class will be holding a cake sale and pupils can come to school in their own clothes – especially something spotty – to help raise funds for Children in Need.

Spiritual Garden Workday

FOLS are organising a workday on Friday 9th November to help clear the Spiritual Garden so that we can begin the next phase of our project. Please come along, if only for a short time and join the working group.
