Parents' Information Workshop – Counting Sleep Friday 9th March

This Friday, as part of our 'Counting Sleep' project, pupils will be taking part in workshops led by Janet Dowling. They will be finding out how sleep affects their brain, moods and ability to learn. Parents Celebration Worship will be at the earlier time of 2.15 pm and will include a workshop for parents so you can find out what your child has been learning about and also about how sleep can affect them. Please come along and find out more.

FOLS Family Bingo Evening – this Friday 9th March 7 pm

Come along to the school hall on Friday and join in the fun!
Tickets are available in advance only from Cath Brint for £2.50 per person. There will be teas/coffees, soft drinks, crisps, cakes etc. available to buy on the night.

Mathematical Mindsets Information Evening

Many thanks to everyone who came along yesterday evening. Parents who came along were very interested in how mindset and learning behaviours are so important in our pupils being able to be successful learners.

I will upload the 'Make Maths Fun' handout and the PowerPoint presentation to our website. #YesUCan

Eggmore!

To support our next major fundraising event, on Friday 9th March, pupils can come to school in their own clothes in exchanged for a small (Cadbury's Cream egg size) Easter egg.

A colouring competition will be taking place will come home in book bags by the end of this week.

Internet Safety

A copy of 'Digital Parenting' magazine went home in book bags yesterday.

Please read through it. There are some very interesting articles on keeping safe on line, sexting and preparing your child for a digital future. The internet is an exciting place but also one our children need educating about.

Year 5 and 6 Gloucestershire Dance Festival

Our pupils thoroughly enjoyed taking part in this event. Thank you to Miss Hooper and Mrs Taylor for all their work making this happen. The video is now on our website.

Advanced Notice – Road Closure Church Lane Saul
