

Appendix to add into behaviour policy June 2020

In line with our school's behaviour policy outlining our expectations of all within our community, we have reviewed and amended our guidance during this time to ensure that during this exceptional period all pupils are clear about our changes to our normal rules in order that we can keep everyone within our school community safe and secure. We will though also recognise how the pressures of this situation will impact on our children's mental well-being which in turn could manifest in a change in behaviour. Some children will return to school having been exposed to a range of adverse situations, including bereavement and long-term anxiety, this may be especially apparent in pupils with SEND. Some children will need additional support and access to specialist services. We will ensure that we bear this in mind when communicating these new changes. These new routines will need to be repeatedly communicated to ensure that so that all our children within our community understand what they are expected to do.

These expectations will be fully communicated to pupils as they physically re-join our school by staff so that they fully understand what the new rules are.

Health and Hygiene

- All pupils will be reminded regularly about how to keep themselves safe by using tissues if they need to sneeze, coughing into a tissue or their elbow and then putting tissues in the bin and immediately washing their hands or use hand sanitizer.
- All pupils must tell a grown up if they are feeling poorly, especially if they have any symptoms of coronavirus.
- No toys, games, books, or other resources will be brought in from home.
- No pupil must cough or spit at anyone within the school community. This will be treated as a physical assault. (you might need to adjust this rule if you have a member of your community who has a condition that might make this difficult to follow)

Exclusion

Our normal rewards and sanctions will apply during this time, which still include the ultimate sanction of exclusion, as long as the headteacher can ensure that any decision to exclude is lawful, rational, reasonable, fair and proportionate. We would only make a decision to permanently exclude if a pupil has committed a serious breach, or persistent breach of the school's behaviour policy, and where allowing the pupil to remain in school would seriously harm the education or welfare of the pupil or others in the school.
